The Honeymoon Gift Registry service is operated by Travel Counsellors Australia Ltd. To use this service the couple must agree to our terms and conditions as set out below:

- 1.0 The Honeymoon Registry is a totally free service:
 - 1.1 The $25 deposit is purely to open the account and is by no means a charge and will be deducted from the cost of the Honeymoon when booked.
- 2.0 There is no minimum or maximum amount for contributions on your account.
- 3.0 The specified closing date for contributions is the responsibility of the 'couple'. We recommend one week after the wedding.
- 4.0 All guests' cards must be clearly marked with both the name of the bride & groom, the file reference and the closing date for contributions.
- 5.0 A deposit amount (determined by the Tour Operator) will be due at the time of booking, unless the reservation is made after this date when payment will be due in full. If insufficient funds have been collected on the Honeymoon Account then it will be the responsibility of the lead name on the booking to ensure the holiday is paid in full on time.
- 6.0 The Balance Payment of the Honeymoon will be due no later than 45 days before the departure date, NOT the date of the wedding. Should contributions in the Honeymoon Account fall short of the funds required, the lead name on the booking will be responsible for the payment of the remaining balanced.
- 7.0 Once all funds are collected and the closing date has passed, the 'couple' will be notified of the total value of contributions collected, when the following options will be available:
 - 7.1 Once all holiday costs have been met, the remaining monies can be refunded by cheque.
 - 7.2 The total amount can be retained by Travel Counsellors for future travel arrangements, to be booked at a later date
- 8.0 In the event that the 'couple' should decided not to book the honeymoon a refund charge will be determined at the discretion of Travel Counsellors, but will be no greater $250.
- 9.0 In the event of cancellation of the honeymoon, Tour Operator cancellation charges will apply, as per the Tour Operators booking conditions.
